Cooling off period

The Applicant may cancel his/her Policy within 31 days from the signature date, if he/she didn't claim for a Benefit. All Premiums paid up to that point will be refunded, subject to the cost of any Cover enjoyed.

Cover and Premium/s

- Premiums are payable for the duration of the Policy and aren't refundable.
- If the Premium is not paid in full, the Policy will be seen as being in arrears, and the standard lapse rules below will apply.
- If a Premium isn't received on the due date, the Policy will be seen as being in arrears, and, in the case of a claim, the value of the outstanding Premium will be deducted from the Cover. If a second Premium isn't received on the subsequent Premium due date, the Policy will lapse, and Cover will cease.
- If the Policy Benefit lapses due to non-payment of Premiums, the Policyholder may apply directly or via the Intermediary to reinstate Cover. Reinstatement will be allowed within 2 months from the effective lapse date, without applying a new Waiting Period. The remaining Waiting Period at the time of the Policy lapsing will still apply, and outstanding Premiums must be paid in order for the Cover to be reinstated. Reinstatement isn't allowed at claims stage and won't be allowed more than once. The Insurer reserves the right to either accept or decline reinstatement of the Policyholder or any other Policy Member/s.
- Cover can't be ceded, nor assigned, or pledged as security in any way, and doesn't have a surrender value.
- The Insurer reserves the right to adjust Premiums as determined by the Insurer's actuarial control function to the Policy Benefits if any government, provincial, municipal, or other authority imposes any involuntary charges, levies, or taxes on the Insurer.
- To ensure that the Product is actuarially sound, the Insurer is entitled to review and increase the Premiums payable at least annually. The Insurer will notify the Main Member 31 days prior to implementing the increase.
- Cover will cease for all Policy Members on the Main Member's death. If a Policy Member wants to continue with the Policy, they need to apply as a new Main Member by submitting a new Application. This will ensure that Cover continues without new/ additional Waiting Periods. Cover for all Policy Members is subject to the Insurer receiving the relevant Premiums.
- The Policyholder may cancel the Cover at any time by giving 31 days' notice to the Intermediary/Insurer. In the event of cancellation, the Cover will continue during the notice period for all Policy Members, if Premiums have been received. The Insurer may cancel the Cover on reasonable grounds at any time by giving 31 days' notice, subject to prevailing legislation.
- The Insurer reserves the right to amend, revoke, vary, or alter any of these terms and conditions, giving the Policyholder 31 days' notice.

- A 6-month Waiting Period will apply to the Main Member and any Policy Member/s in respect of death due to natural causes.
- A 12-month Waiting Period will apply to the Main Member and any Policy Member/s in respect of death due to Suicide.
- If Benefits are added/ increased at any stage for a Main Member/Policy Member, a new Waiting Period will apply to the added Benefit/s.
- If an active funeral policy is replaced, the Waiting Period served on the replaced policy will be considered. However, this only applies in respect of the replaced policy's cover. If the selected Cover is higher, then there'll be a Waiting Period on the increased Cover. This only applies to Policy Member/s who were covered on the replaced policy. The replacement must be proven by the Main Member by providing a:
  - Replacement record of advice;
